Men's Cashmere & Clothing — Antalya

Pocket guide: where to shop near the centre, and how to check the quality yourself.

1. The quality checks

Check	What to look for	Warning sign
Label	“100% Kaşmir / Cashmere” on the sewn-in care label	“Cashmere feel”, “cashmere touch”, “kaşmir hissi”, no label at all
Touch	Warm, soft, slightly matte; feels lighter than it looks	Very shiny, slippery or cool to the touch (viscose / acrylic)
Stretch	Gently pull a small area: it springs straight back	Stays stretched or looks distorted
Rub test	Rub the surface lightly with your palm: little or no fuzz	Lots of fluff or pills appear immediately (short, low-grade fibres)
Light test	Hold to the light: tight, even knit	Thin patches, see-through areas, uneven gauge
Seams & finish	Linked (knitted-together) seams, neat cuffs and collar	Cut-and-sewn edges, loose threads, overlocked raw seams
Price	Fair: roughly €80+ for a scarf, €150+ for a sweater (full price)	“100% cashmere” sweater for €30–40: almost certainly not
Paperwork	Receipt (fiş / fatura) and a return or exchange policy	Cash only, no receipt, “no returns”

2. Men's shops near the centre (Muratpaşa)

Independent men's clothing stores found in local directories. Not personally verified: check Google Maps photos, reviews and opening hours first.

3. Safe bets for real cashmere

Where	Why
Vakko / Beymen	Turkey's luxury department stores; labelled 100% cashmere for men. Check TerraCity's store directory before going.

Where	Why
Massimo Dutti (TerraCity)	Mid-price; some 100% cashmere men's knitwear. Read every label.
BOSS Menswear (Tekelioğlu Cd.)	Brand store; wool and cashmere-blend knits and coats.
Kundu / Lara outlets	30–60% off brand stock; real cashmere can turn up, but what's in stock changes.

4. Useful Turkish phrases
